

Praise for "Across the Water"

Thank you SO much Beck!! Sophie and I had such a great time!  Wonderful energy.

- Superb and wonderful. Congratulations! Thank you Beck for saying yes to bringing your gifts and skills to our community.
- Beck, I had to run to pick up my kid, and didn't have a chance to thank you or the artists in person. What a delight! I had such a fun evening. So beautiful, so touched.

Thank you for making it happen  and thank you too for helping us out!

- Ismail Ouassaddine on Facebook:

Last night at Mixed Blood Theatre, Across the Water became more than a concert. It became a conversation between civilizations.

RED THREAD and ARDAA stood together, carrying different languages, histories, rhythms, and memories—yet when their voices met, difference did not disappear. It became harmony.

What I enjoyed most was the sense of community throughout the evening. After the performances, there was a gathering where people had a chance to connect, have conversations, and enjoy the moment together.

For me, the evening was a great reminder of how music can bring people from different backgrounds together and create opportunities for cultural understanding and connection.

Thanks to Beck and his amazing team for the well organized event
